Captain's Column

Hi everyone and welcome to our Round 3 clash with the Adelaide Thunderbirds at the University of Sunshine Coast in Sippy Downs.

If I'm honest it still feels a little weird to be playing our home games in Queensland - and away from so many of our loyal members and fans - but 2020 has been one of those years where you just have to get things done, and I would like to say a huge thank you again to everyone who's done so much to get us here.

The Sunshine Coast is a beautiful part of the world and the people have been very welcoming so, outside of missing home, we have very little to complain about.

This game is going to be a tough one. Like the Swifts, the Adelaide Thunderbirds are one of the foundation teams of elite club netball in Australia and have a rich history.

While it's been a few years since they've won a Premiership, they have shown real improvement recently and their great win against the Giants showed what they are capable of.

Last year we had one of our toughest outings of the season in Adelaide and were very lucky to escape with a draw so we'll have to ensure everything is working in sync or we'll be in trouble.

As ever we aim to play with the pride, passion and effort the Swifts dress deserves.

Together We Can. Go NSW Swifts

Round 2 Recap

The Swifts came from 10 goals down to claim a thrilling 73-72 win over the West Coast Fever in Round 2 of Suncorp Super Netball.

In the game of the year so far, the Premiers fought back from a huge deficit to lead by a sizeable margin themselves only to just get home.

The Suncorp Super Shot was a good tool for both teams in their respective comebacks, but it was NSW who were more streetwise in the end.

The early impetus was with the Fever and it allowed the West Australians to take a 6-3 lead before Briony Akle called her first timeout.

The opening Rebel Power Five started with Fever goal attack Alice Teague-Neeld sinking a pair of Super Shots from range, but Sam Wallace and Helen Housby responded in kind to keep the Swifts in touch.

The Fever stretched their advantage to 12 after confusion in the Swifts’ attacking end and both Jhaniele Fowler and Teague-Neeld looked comfortable under the post and from range. Play got scrappy for a while but the Swifts were well in the game at the big break – 33-41.

Massive defence from Sarah Klau and Lauren Moore engineered a host of turnovers early in the third quarter and there was much more rhythm to their play. Sophie Garbin was working well in tandem with Housby and midway through the period NSW were back level terms.

From there the Swifts took control, pouncing on loose possession and connecting well at both ends of the court.

Housby sank a pair of Super Shots in the final period of the play but it was the accuracy and power of Garbin that really kept the scoreboard ticking over. The Swifts won the quarter 27-11 to take an eight-goal lead to the last break.

They did a good job of keeping the Fever at bay for most of the final quarter but when the last Power Five started Fowler stepped up to shoot West Coast right back into the game. However control at the death allowed Housby the chance to seal the win, which she did.

For a player still well south of her thirties, it's remarkable to think how much NSW Swifts vice-captain Paige Hadley has already achieved.

As a young girl she watched the Swifts win Premierships. Lots of Premierships. From the days of Liz Ellis and Cath Cox through to the modern era of Kim Green and Susan Pettitt, she saw plenty of success as a fan but it's as a Swift herself where Paige flies highest.

Put simply, she loves the club. It was clear from an early age that Paige had what it took. Today she joins an elite group of players, including those famous names above, as a Swifts centurion.

In 2008, a three-peat year for the club, Paige watched from the stands at Qudos Bank Arena as Coxy lifted the ANZ Championship trophy – the Swifts' fifth title. Little did she know then that 11 years later it would be her lifting the prize as the Swifts ended a decade-long wait for another.

Did it come easy? Definitely not, and there was plenty of heartache along the way. After debuting in 2012 as a replacement player before earning her first fulltime contract a year later, Paige – as she is known in the Swifts environment – would take plenty of knocks, but nothing could keep her down.

An ACL injury and two heart-breaking Grand Final losses to the Queensland Firebirds in 2015 and 2016 could have derailed her, but hard work and commitment has never been in short supply when it comes to the girl from Penrith. There aren't many players who can bounce back from a career-threatening injury and go on to win a World Cup - but Paige Hadley did that in 2015.

“...HARD WORK AND COMMITMENT HAS NEVER BEEN IN SHORT SUPPLY WHEN IT COMES TO THE GIRL FROM PENRITH.”

When Suncorp Super Netball replaced the ANZ Championship in 2017, Paige proved her loyalty to the club. Were there other offers? Of course there were, but she believed in the vision and the new group of players who'd just signed on. Maddy Proud, Helen Housby, Sam Wallace, Sarah Klau – just to name a few.

She also had good mates Abbey McCulloch and Maddy Turner at her side, and although Finals would be out of reach for a while, Paige was happy to play the long game.

She grew as a person, as a player and as a leader. Soon the Australian Diamonds would come looking for her services again. She became fitter, faster, stronger. The Sydney Morning Herald labelled her the ultimate modern netballer.

When Proud fell to a season-ending injury against the Firebirds in Brisbane last year, it was Paige who pulled to group together. There would be no tears, they could wait till after. The Swifts had a job to finish.

“Do it for that girl lying over there, she is who we’re playing for now,” Paige ordered the troops and they delivered. In fact, they kept delivering.

And then it came - the litmus test. A Grand Final in Brisbane. Paige had played two deciders

“SHE BECAME FITTER, FASTER, STRONGER.
THE SYDNEY MORNING
HERALD LABELLED HER
THE ULTIMATE MODERN

at the Brisbane Entertainment Centre and lost both at the death. This time it wasn't the Firebirds, but the new kids on the block – the Sunshine Coast Lightning.

Nine out of 10 experts picked the Lightning to win. Only one – former club skipper Green – backed the Swifts.

Paige nailed the opening move: a three-pass play with Natalie Haythornthwaite and Wallace. It was the settler and set the standard for the day - a standard that Paige wouldn't let slip. Just over an hour later she finally had a Premiership to sit alongside her World Cup title.

At 27, Paige is far from done. In fact, like her teammates, she wants this current group to emulate - or even surpass - what Ellis and Cox did in a Swifts dress.

But that can wait for another day. Today we celebrate a player whose raw talent, coupled with a fearsome athleticism and work ethic, allows her to bring up 100 caps at elite club netball level. That she's done it all with one club is even more special.

Her family, fiancé, friends, teammates, coaches and club couldn't be prouder.

Well played Paigey. ●

Swifts Shoutout

SHOUTOUT TO LUCY & ZOE SUBMITTED BY JILL GLUSKIE

"Lucy and Zoe met through the Swifts instagram page. It is a very special friendship as Zoe lives in Sydney and Lucy in Hobart. We travelled from Hobart to attend Swiftmas 2019. The girls spoke for months before actually meeting in person in a running embrace at the train station. It was a scene all too familiar in many movies and brought a tear to my eye. They spent the next few hours arm in arm meeting the team including their favourites the two Maddy's. They were on cloud nine. Their long distance friendship blossomed further and were both fortunate to attend the Fan Day in March. Lucy again saved madly to pay for her airfare. Lucy adores the NSW Swifts and proudly wears her Swifts gear every day including to her own netball games in Hobart. Thankyou for bringing two girls together that love the NSW Swifts."
