Welcome back to Suncorp Super Netball 2020 everyone and to another massive clash with the Sunshine Coast Lightning at Brisbane's Nissan Arena.

I have been very pleased by our team's reaction since we last played the Lightning, registering back-to-back wins after the Sunny Coast inflicted our first loss of the year in Round 4.

The Queensland Firebirds really pushed us in the third quarter of our Round 5 clash, while Collingwood matched us play-for-play on the weekend but I felt we showed good composure at the death.

That said, there are a lot of things we need to improve. What we need to work on is making the most of the turnovers we create.

Sarah Klau, Lauren Moore and Paige Hadley (where can't Paige play?!) have been superb in generating vital possession gains but we've not been converting. We must get better at this.

Being the Premiers brings its own set of challenges but it is a problem every team wants so we need to embrace being the hunted.

The Lightning have been our biggest rivals over the past 12 months and they remain one of the standard-bearers of this competition.

From a personal point of view I can't wait to hit the court and face the likes of Laura Langman and Laura Scherian. They are brilliant opponents and players I want to test myself against.

There are similar battles up and down the court. How good is midweek netty? We play for the love and history of this amazing club. Together We Can. Go NSW Swifts.

Round 6 Recap

The NSW Swifts claimed a thrilling 60-58 Round 6 Suncorp Super Netball win over the Collingwood Magpies on Saturday, making it five wins from their opening six outings.

The Magpies were in search of their second victory of the year and pushed the Premiers to the limit in a tight game at Brisbane’s Nissan Arena.

The Swifts created plenty of turnovers in the opening exchanges however they didn’t convert on the scoreboard. Midway through the first quarter Collingwood were only a goal in arrears and when Gabi Sinclair landed the first Suncorp Super Shots of the afternoon the Pies led.

Collingwood looked more composed at the start of the second quarter and scrambled well to cause the Swifts a host of problems. Five consecutive Shimona Nelson goals put the Pies in control before the Premiers upped the ante.

Confusion in the Magpies attack started to creep in and the Swifts took their opportunities. Helen Housby wasn’t afraid to shoot from range and when she landed a pair of Super Shots NSW were back.

The Magpies had the chance to take a four-goal lead to the sheds but missed a Super Shot, resulting in a long-range pass from Paige Hadley to Sam Wallace who was free in the two-goal zone. The Trinidad & Tobago international made no mistake, getting her side back on level terms by halftime.

The Swifts opened up a five-goal lead early in the second half but weren’t able to shake a dogged Collingwood outfit. NSW looked to be managing the third quarter well but contrasting fortunes in the Rebel Power Five meant the teams were still tied at the last break.

The final quarter was a tense affair as the sides went goal for goal early on. Confusion in the goal circle for Magpies allowed Housby the opportunity to add two more goals and put the Swifts four clear.

Sinclair had the last say with another two-goal shot but the Swifts ran the seconds down to win with defender Sarah Klau named MVP for the first time this season.

A little update from Queensland

We miss playing in front of our home crowds

The Sunshine State has lived up to its billing so far as the NSW Swifts get used to calling Queensland home for the 2020 Suncorp Super Netball season.

If you have to go into a hub environment, then the Sunny Coast is a pretty nice place to do it. Fantastic beaches, great weather, breath-taking scenery and a wonderfully friendly locals – it really is a little slice of heaven.

The Swifts have made their home in Mooloolaba on the Sunshine Coast, travelling in and out to Brisbane and Sippy Downs for games.

On the face of it, the situation is pretty picture perfect: the Premiers getting to stay in one of the most beautiful parts of Australia as they look to win back-to-back Premierships and a seventh title since the club was founded in 1997.

The locals also love their netball. The Sunshine Coast Lightning are the big show in town. There aren't 50 pages of rugby league in the paper before netball gets a mention.

Cameron who? Ignore the footy players, on the Sunny Coast it's Laura Langman and Steph Wood (both former Swifts) who are the big news.

Obviously, the two-time champion Lightning are most people's team, but the Swifts have been fast to make friends up north and don't be surprised if you see the odd Lightning fan smile when Helen Housby sinks a Super Shot (unless it's against Sunny Coast, of course).

But hub life isn't all sunny beaches and good coffee. The setting may be beautiful but the work and effort required for the Swifts to remain successful hasn't changed. This is high performance sport and as the saying goes; fail to prepare, prepare to fail.

THE SETTING MAY BE BEAUTIFUL BUT THE WORK AND EFFORT REQUIRED FOR THE SWIFTS TO REMAIN SUCCESSFUL HASN'T CHANGED. THIS IS HIGH PERFORMANCE SPORT AND AS THE SAYING GOES; FAIL TO PREPARE, PREPARE TO FAIL.

"This is such a wonderful backdrop to stay in but we are not tourists," Head Coach Briony Akle says. "The view from the office may be spectacular but we've got a job to do.

"We are playing three games a week against the best netballers in the world in the fastest and most physical netball competition in existence. It's pretty crazy when you think about it, but that's what 2020 has been for everyone.

"A lot of people see the front-facing side, when the team have a rare day off and rightly make the most of this amazing region - but they don't often see the extra training, team meetings, recovery and separation from loved ones that can balance your mood out.

"Our players and staff have made a temporary home for themselves here but they aren't forgetting the real reason we are in Queensland.

"WE ARE PLAYING THREE GAMES A WEEK AGAINST THE BEST NETBALLERS IN THE WORLD IN THE FASTEST AND MOST PHYSICAL NETBALL COMPETITION IN EXISTENCE."
- BRIONY AKLE

"At the end of the day this group of players should have more Premierships in them, be it this year or next year and they won't lose sight of that.

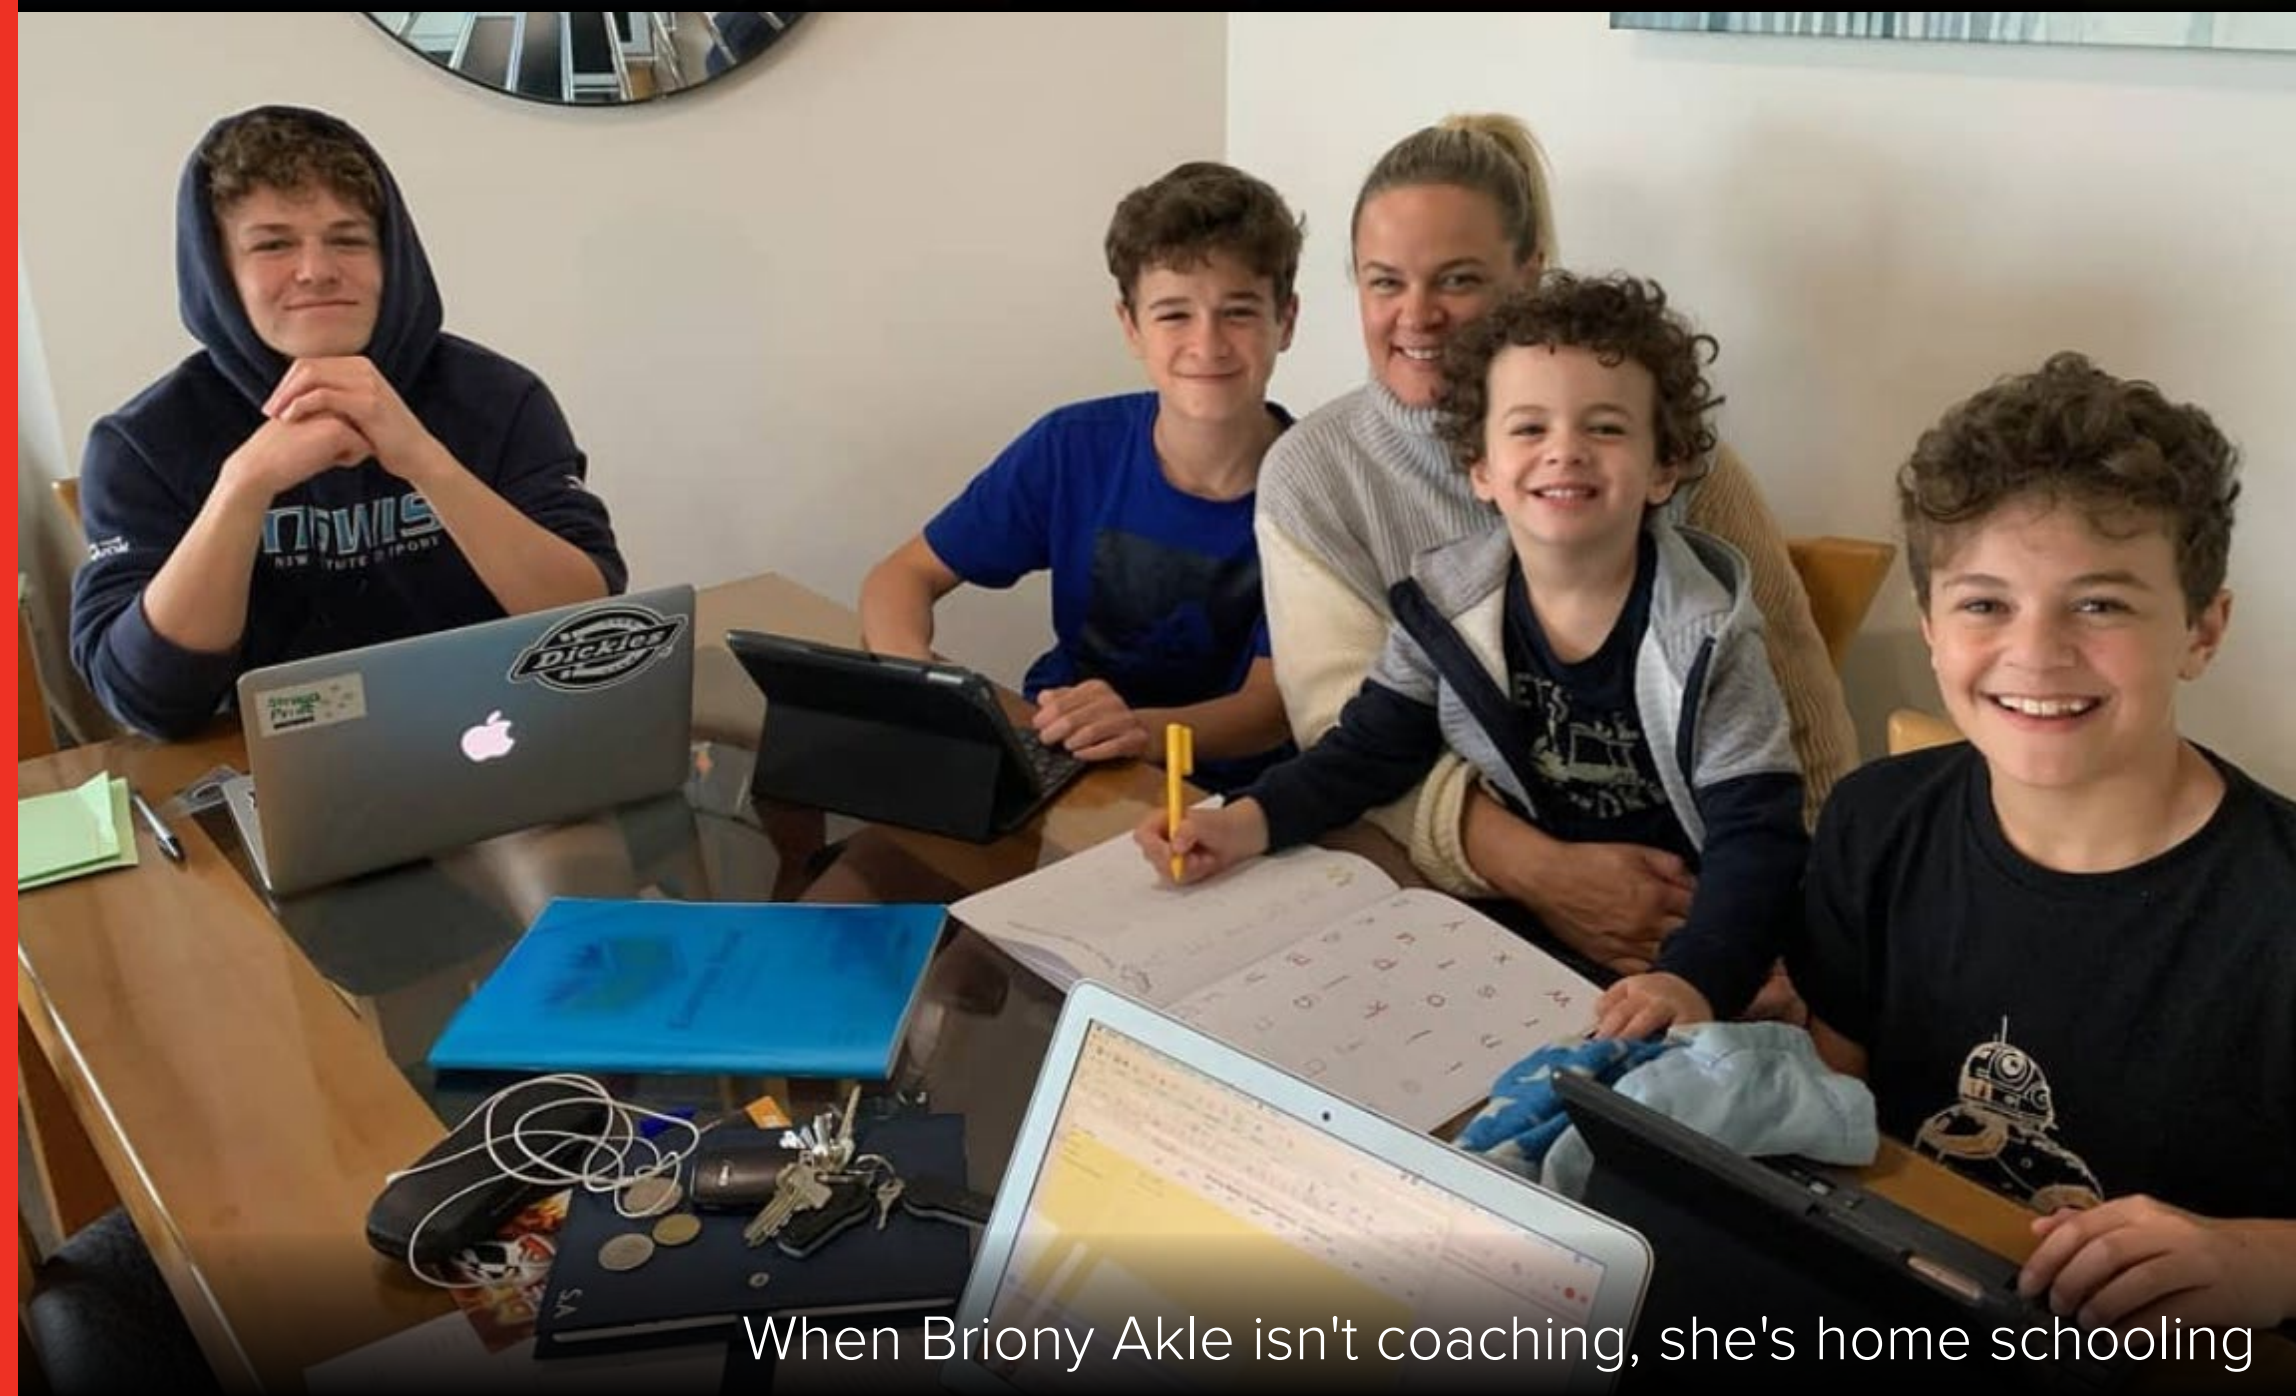

"But I also think when they do get some down time it's vital to have an environment that can allow them to relax and this part of Queensland provides that.

"There are times when it gets lonely and no amount of sun can make up for missing our loved ones at home. However, I think all of our playing roster and staff up here have amazing support from our families, partners and Swifts fans back home."

The Lightning have a superb record on home soil, but the Round 7 clash will be a Swifts-hosted game behind closed doors at Brisbane's Nissan

It's not home, but it's also not a bad backdrop for a media call

When Briony Akle isn't coaching, she's home schooling

Arena. Akle hopes that can play into NSW's hands.

"Look, Sunny Coast are world class athletes and they can play anywhere," she added.

"They won their second Premiership away in Perth and came back from well down to beat us in Sydney last year so to them it will just be a court.

"But they have a brilliant home support when they play at Sippy Downs, which – like the Swifts fans do for us – can be a real motivation for them.

"I think these closed mid-week games will be a new challenge for the teams and I'm hoping we adapt better.

"Both sides are tracking well so far, but there is such a long way to go in the regular season and we've been pushed in every game so no drop in intensity can be afforded."

Home might be where the heart is, but it's nice to have glorious sunsets to revive the soul until the Swifts are ready to return south. Hopefully, with the Super Netball trophy still in their possession. ●

Swifts Shoutout

MELISSA WILLIAMS SENDS A SHOUTOUT TO HER FAMILY

"My sister Julie Klimek and I have been members since 2010 starting out with my daughters Caitlin and Janaya attending games with us until they started working and now Julie's daughters Emily and Aimee join us at every game.

Emily and Aimee were babies when they came to their first game and we had to take turns nursing them on our laps. Last years grand final win was described by our daughters as a day they have been waiting for all their lives and as one of the best days ever. They have grown up as part of the swifts family."
